

In the table below, explain how the following groups of people are involved in trying to reduce the transmission of viral diseases.

What can the general public do?	What can professionals do? For example: The Government, scientists, healthcare workers, law enforcement, communications experts